

Join Us in Supporting NADIA LOCKYER for Supervisor

“Nadia’s experience and achievements at the county demonstrate the commitment, energy and know-how we all want in our County Supervisor. She will make certain that southern Alameda County gets a bigger, fairer share of the county resources we need for our own communities.”

Mary Hayashi, Assemblywoman, 18th Dist.

- Speaker Pro-Tem of the Assembly Fiona Ma
- Board of Equalization Chairwoman Betty T. Yee
- Alameda County District Attorney Nancy O’Malley
- Alameda County Superintendent of Schools
Sheila Jordan
- Union Sanitary Board Member Pat Gacoscos
- San Leandro School Board Member Diana Prola

- New Haven Unified School District Board Member
Gertrude Gregorio
- Hayward Unified School District Board of Trustees
Sheila Sims
- San Leandro Vice Mayor Joyce Starosciak
- Former New Haven Unified School District
Board Member Barbara Valle
- Mayor Emeritus of San Leandro Sheila Young

Nadia Lockyer has the compassion and the understanding we’re looking for in our elected leaders. With her experience and background, she has the knowledge to make local government work. The Democratic Party strongly supports Nadia Lockyer for County Supervisor.

Robin Torello

Robin Torello, Chair
Alameda County Democratic Party

- Cherri Allison
- Anne Baker
- Bonita Banducci
- Priscilla Banks
- Lori Baptista
- Anissa Bosco-Villareal
- April Chan
- Laura Crosby
- Joyce Dobro
- Annie Flores
- Jessica Gutierrez
- Fanny Hagbom
- Janet Kassouf

- Catherine Keesee
- Terrie Light
- Argentina Davila-Luevano
- Sharlene Mansfield
- Ann Allison Marsh
- Denise Martellacci
- Kathy Neal
- Rose Padilla-Johnson
- Raeanne Passantino
- Andrea Peixoto
- Barbara Quintero
- Darlene Richardson
- Lorraine Ritchie
- Tomoko Roudebush
- Marion Sands
- Moina Shaiq
- Laura Simpson
- Deborah Roderick Stark
- Elaine Sunday
- Laura Swan
- Lorraine Taylor
- Ruth Traylor
- Yolanda Triana
- Monica Zepeda Schultz

A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY ENDORSES
NADIA LOCKYER
 for Supervisor

Nadia, the youngest of seven children, grew up in Orange County in a family committed to public service, helping others, and advancing the cause of civil rights. Nadia's mother, Irmgard Davis, and her father, the late Wally Davis—a civil rights attorney and activist often described as a “giant” in the Latino community—were the inspiring forces in shaping Nadia's lifelong passion for service.

As President of Board of the 60,000 student Santa Ana Unified School District, Nadia led efforts to increase college attendance rates, reduce teen pregnancy rates, build new schools, and improve collaboration with city, county, and state elected officials.

Nadia received her Bachelors Degree from UCLA and her J.D. from Loyola Law School. She has been a member of the California State Bar since 1997 and has spent much of her legal career devoted to pro-bono work.

Nadia is the Executive Director of the Alameda County Family Justice Center (ACFJC). Since 2007, Nadia has led the ACFJC in helping children, young people, the elderly and families throughout the county cut through red tape to get the help they need.

Nadia works with multiple agencies to provide services to victims of domestic violence, child abuse, elder abuse, and sexual assault and exploitation. Her program has been recognized as a national model of best practices, offering comprehensive service delivery in an efficient and effective manner.

Nadia was recognized by the California Democratic Party as the first recipient of its John F. Kennedy Jr. Public Service Award. She has received numerous awards and recognitions for her work on behalf of children and families including the Human Relations Commission's Public Service Award and the League of United Latin American Citizens Hispanic 2009 Champion against Domestic Violence Award.

Nadia lives in Hayward with her husband, State Treasurer Bill Lockyer, and their 6-year-old son, Diego.